To Study the United States Military Assistance Program
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Lincoln:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of 30 January 1959 confirming Colonel Stilwell's request for the temporary loan of a qualified stenographer.

The Director of Personnel will arrange to supply a stenographer without delay. We fully appreciate the situation which made this request necessary and are more than glad to cooperate. At the same time secretarial assistance is a constant problem for us and we would be very grateful to you if you would insure that this secretary is returned to us at the earliest possible date.

Sincerely,
